Lecture - “The Story of Telling the Cornwall Story at the Cornwall Iron Furnace”

Tuesday, April 12th, 2022, at 7 PM

On Tuesday, April 12, at 7 PM James Polczynski will give a talk titled: “The Story of Telling the Cornwall Story at the Cornwall Iron Furnace.” This year marks the 90th anniversary of Margaret Buckingham’s gift of the Cornwall Iron Furnace to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Over that time both what a visitor has experienced, and the story told has evolved. This presentation will take you back in time using photos from the museum’s archive. Jim will also talk about the museum’s current efforts to expand the Cornwall story. This is a story of storytelling. The presentation has been put together by a collaborative effort of staff and volunteers.

James Polczynski has worked as a consulting Knowledge Engineer for various steel companies, including Bethlehem Steel, Lukens Steel, Dofasco Steel and Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel. He developed an interest in the iron and steel industry in Lebanon and Cornwall while renovating and restoring the Cornwall Company Store. He is the author of “Souls of Iron” which tells the remarkable story of the Coleman iron dynasty. The book is available as an Ebook and will be available in hardback in the Spring of 2022. Jim also is currently President of the Friends of the Cornwall Iron Furnace.

Mike Emery (CIF Administrator) will moderate a brief discussion at the end of the presentation.

This is an online lecture that will utilize the Zoom platform.

Space is limited, and registration is required. To register please go to:
